Pajama Day	Who doesn't want to wear their pajamas all day?! Fun Fact: I was curious about the spelling of Pajamas, so I did a little research. The term Pyjamas was borrowed from Persian language in the 1800s (England). Traditionally it refers to 2 piece outfits used as loungewear. The spelling "Pajamas" is the Americanized version, but you will find many people still use the spelling "Pyjamas". The term is often shortened to PJs, Jammies, or JimJams. (Please wear appropriate attire.)		April 8	F	8-5	FREE
Home Astronomy: What You Can See From Home	No matter where you live, there are things to observe in the night sky. Stars, the Moon, planets, and rare events like meteor showers, eclipses, and conjunctions await you. Join us for an informational presentation from Dr. Galloway, owner of the Jaqueline Rose Observatory.		April 12	T	1:30-3	$3
Can You Find the Y Bunny?	During the week of April 18-22 we will hide a "Y Bunny" somewhere in the Senior Center, a different location every day. Be the first person to find the Y bunny and receive a prize!		April 18-22	M-F	8-5	FREE
Document Shredding Event	Here is your chance to clean out and get organized! Fill a banker's sized box with your old bank statements, tax returns and other important documents that should not be put out in the trash. No registration required. Each box is $5.		April 20	W	11:30-12:30	$5
Lincoln Below the Surface: Tales, Triumphs and Tribulations	A unique presentation, Abraham Lincoln comes alive in ways rarely divulged. Did you know he was considered a slow learner, made a poor first impression, opposed abolition, and had a foreboding dream the night before he was shot in Ford's Theatre? A complex man during complex times, his life is the ultimate example of grit and determination. Learn about his nuances, idiosyncrasies, and challenges through his own words and those of others. Leave with a new understanding of this uncommon individual whose ultimate achievement continues to impact us all.		April 26	T	1:30-2:30	$3
Craft Supplies Sale	Do you spend your spare time crafting items for gifts, yourself or just for the pleasure it gives you? This sale is for you!
